The program is for business owners, senior management and emerging leaders who live and/or work in Montgomery County. This intensive hands-on exploration of social and economic issues and community resources allows participants to examine their own values and beliefs while building trust, rapport and valuable long-lasting networks.

Attend one of the following information events to learn about the benefits from graduates.

Advance reservations requested at least two days before the event.

Call 301-881-3333 or email esther.newman@leadermont.org.
